

Curriculum Vitae: Gary M. Bernstein

Address: Department of Physics and Astronomy
David Rittenhouse Laboratory
University of Pennsylvania
209 S 33rd St
Philadelphia, PA 19104

Phone: (215) 573-6252 E-mail: garyb@physics.upenn.edu
FAX: (215) 898-2010 WWW: web.sas.upenn.edu/garyb

Education A.B., Physics, summa cum laude, Princeton University, 1983.
Ph.D., Physics, University of California, Berkeley, December 1989. Thesis Title: Measurements of the Spectrum and Anisotropy of the Millimeterwave Background; Advisor: Paul Richards.
Postdoctoral MTS, AT&T Bell Labs, 1989-1991, Astrophysics
Bok Fellow, Steward Observatory, 1991-1994, Astrophysics

Appointments

2008-present Reese W. Flower Professor of Physics and Astronomy, University of Pennsylvania

2007-2008 Professor of Physics and Astronomy, University of Pennsylvania

2002-2007 Associate Professor of Physics and Astronomy, University of Pennsylvania

2001-2002 Associate Professor of Astronomy, University of Michigan

1994-2001 Assistant Professor of Astronomy, University of Michigan

Service Highlights and Honors

Dark Energy Survey Project Scientist (2013-2019)

DOE Laboratory Cosmic Frontier Review (2016)

School of Arts & Sciences Personnel Committee (2013-2016, Chair 2015-2016)

Hubble Space Telescope Time Allocation Committee (2008, 2011, 2014)

NSF Astrophysics Portfolio Review (2011-2012)

Astrophysics Subcommittee of NASA Advisory Council (2011-2014)

Dark Energy Task Force [NASA/NSF/DoE] (2005-2006)

The Big Throughput Camera (BTC) was available as a facility instrument on the Cerro Tololo Blanco 4-meter telescope from 1996-1999, with construction and support supervised by GMB.

NSF CAREER Faculty Grant (1999-2002)

William Lowell Putnam Mathematics Competition, top 50 scorers (1982 & 1983)